Value for Money

That's what you get from your CEPU Membership

Surveys consistently show better wages and conditions for union members.

It stands to reason that no individual worker standing alone can hope to bargain with an employer on an equal footing.

The CEPU ensures that workers combine their strength to speak with one voice.

We also empower workers on the job through extensive training programs to help them:

- negotiate effectively on behalf of members
- deal with small issues before, they become big ones
- ensure that decisions are made democratically

Due to the often dangerous nature of our industry, we also give a high priority to training on occupational health & safety issues.

Workers compensation, superannuation, enterprise bargaining ... we're always there to help out.

We also provide a range of non-industrial services which are spelt out on our website: www.etu.asn.au

Get with the strength of the CEPU.

Direct Debit

Why Direct Debit?

No worries. No hassles.

No wonder many CEPU members are choosing to pay their membership dues by direct debit from their bank, credit union or building society.

Payments are made weekly or fortnightly, giving you the following advantages -

- You don't need to find a lump sum of over $400 at a time of year when money is often tight.
- You need never fear that, by paying late or forgetting to pay altogether, you may lose your financial status and your access to services that are available only to financial members

Is there any advantage to the Union?

Yes ... direct debit payments come in on a consistent basis. This makes it easier for us to budget. It couldn't be easier to sign up for direct debit payments. Just fill out the form on the right and post it to:
